BASSANO, ALBERTA THURSDAY, JUNE 26th, 1942

LICENCE NUMBER 727154

All In Readiness For July 1st

All is in readiness for the big Dominion Day Celebration. Final arrangements were completed this week and from the plans made the best days show ever presented in Bassano will be held this year.

All men in uniform will be admitted free to the fairgrounds and the dances.

From the time the horse racing starts at 1:30 p.m. till the dance finishes in the "vive can" hours of the morning a continuous program of entertainment will be seen.

Fourteen horse races will be run in the afternoon with Men's sports filling in the idle moments. On the grandstand the stage show will be in progress for those who wish to see acrobatics, dancing, singing, etc. rather than sports.

About five o'clock in the afternoon the baseball game between Bassano and the team that wins the game to be played on Sunday will be played.

The carnival and dance featuring Len Davis and his six piece orchestra will finish the day in grand style. All the popular carnival booths and the refreshment booth will be on hand in the curling rink building.

The tennis court and the swimming pool will be open to the public for the day. So bring your tennis racket and your swimming suit and enjoy yourself in the morning before the program starts.

The Orpheum Theatre will present the show "GO WEST" starring the Marx Brothers.

All that is needed now to make this a day to be long remembered.

The well-trained, tough fighting men, these Canadian soldiers who will be the guests of honour during Army Week, June 29 to July 5.

The Navy and the Air Force have had their full share of gallant exploits. The army so far has had to be content to do a drab job without glamour or spotlight. But turn will come. Each arm of the service will have its share in the glory and the decorations in this year must be fought on the land.

Army Week will fetter the men on island posts away up north near Prince Rupert or at the batteries outside of Sydney, N.S., who day and night in all sorts of weather, keep watch and vigil. No more grim or drab task could be set for men and no men could show more resolution or keenness or determination.

All across Canada, in training centres, in units, these men are fitting themselves for the task that must come. Nothing could be more worthy than that the citizens of Canada should pay their respects and do honor to the officers and men and the women too, of the Canadian Army.

Everyone's Helping
Canadians everywhere have shown tremendous enthusiasm in this undertaking. Service clubs and all types of Canadian organizations and private citizens are planning for a great week for the army, entertaining boys in their homes, at the clubs and in club meetings, visiting camps and bringing to the soldiers assurances that Canada is behind them.

And while these men in Canada are being honored the men at the outposts in Jamaica and Newfoundland and Labrador and the sons of Canada, 140,000 strong, who represent this country in England will not be forgotten. The endurance, the fortitude, the industry and courage of these soldiers is worthy of every act of interest and solicitude which can be shown. Canada is proud of them.

Generally, when thinking is talked about, one thinks of rifles and Bren guns and Tommy guns and trench mortars and anti-tank rifles and gas masks and Universal carriers and map reading and field work and muckety and physical training and all these physical things that have to be learned by a Canadian soldier.

There has been a tremendous increase in technical proficiency in the army. There are over forty different trades and not only do mechanical units require tradesmen, but the armoured formations call for about 35 per cent of skilled men.

He's Highly Skilled
On the technical and physical side, if he really knows his job the soldier has to be as highly skilled as any members of fighting forces and for all-round qualifications he doesn't take his hat off to anyone.

Under army administration right now there are 36 basic centres and 25 advanced training centres, including those for armoured corps, artillery, engineering, signaller, infantry, Army Service Corps, ordnance, medical, machine gun, small arms.

Trustees to be Elected to Hospital Board

Representatives to be Elected From Husar, Latham and Majorville. Election Will Be Held In July.

The trustees of Bassano Municipal Hospital District will be required to elect their representatives on the hospital board during the second week in July.

There are five members on the board: one for the Town of Bassano, one for the Husar district one for the Gem district, one for the Rosemary-Latham district and one for the Majorville district.

Three members are to be elected this year: for Husar, Latham and Majorville, and elections will be held at the Makepeace School on Monday, July 6th, at Majorville School on Wednesday, July 8th, and at Latham School on Friday, July 10th.

The departmental regulations require that only one meeting be held for the election of each member, at which the nomination is made, the candidates are given the opportunity to speak and the voting is done by ballot. It requires nominations to be made by at least three ratepayers resident in the ward for which the members is to be elected and the candidate must also be a resident ratepayer of that ward. The elected member holds office until the next election which is usually two years later.

The hospital secretary is required to be present at each meeting and give any information regarding the operation of the hospital that is requested.

In the past it was the practice of the Minister of Health to appoint a member to the board where no organized municipality existed and the present plan is a change to the more democratic method where every ratepayer has a say in who shall represent him.

MINISTER OF NATIONAL DEFENCE

To the Citizens of Canada.

OTTAWA.

It has been decided to mark the period from June 29th to July 5th, 1942, as "Army Week". The purpose is to give the people of Canada an opportunity of expressing their pride in the Canadian Army and honouring the Gentlemen in Battledress, the Nursing Sisters and the Members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps.

During Army Week, citizens will have an unusual opportunity of seeing the Army at work. Each day has been set aside for some specific purpose. Monday, June 29th, for instance, has been made "Soldier's Day" when the public will be invited to send gifts and parcels to the men overseas and when they can entertain the men at dances and other special entertainments. The next day, June 30th, is "Civilians' Day", when civilians will be asked to prepare meals on a food ration system and restaurants will serve meals identical to those served to Canadian soldiers. On Dominion Day there will be garrison parades and special military demonstrations. The 2nd, 3rd and 4th of July will equally be devoted to enabling Canadians to learn at first hand various phases of Army activities.

Army Week will wind up on Sunday, July 5th, when the public will be invited to attend church services in Army camps and barracks, and special prayers will be offered for the members of the Armed Forces. On that day, camps will be open to the public and demonstrations and displays of barracks and camps will be arranged.

As Minister of National Defence, I am intensely proud of the men and women in khaki and of the women in Nursing Service blue who are serving Canada. I am sure that my fellow Canadians feel just as I do. I extend a cordial invitation to all of you to express this well deserved appreciation by joining in the events of Army Week.

Yours very truly,

W. L. Mackenzie King

Crews Speed Work On B.C. Road Links

Twelve hundred Japanese are working on the Blue River Highway between Jasper and Kamloops in speeding the construction of that gap on the northern outlet to the Pacific coast.

Officials of the Alberta Motor Association are watching this work with interest, particularly as this province has endeavored for some time to bring about the construction of new links with the B.C. highway system.

Reports indicate that road building machinery is on the job and steady progress is being made.

Within the province, road work also is being advanced in various sections.

The "east coast" surfacing of the Trans-Canada Highway section for 35 miles from Walsh, on the Saskatchewan border, to Redcliff, west of Medicine Hat, has been completed, according to officials of the public works department.

For some time the province has been queried by A.M.A. officials as to when this surfacing would be completed. This route is expected to attract a large volume of west-bound motor traffic this summer, in addition to many eastbound drivers certain to take advantage of improvements on this main highway.

Provincial road officials have stated that work on several projects which are being reconstructed or rebuilt entirely on a new route will be completed by the end of June so that there will be little interruption to holiday motor traffic during the peak of the season.

Famous Chuck Wagon Team Burn

The world-famous chuckwagon team of thoroughbreds, owned by Dick Cosgrove of Newbould, eight times winner of the Rangeland Derby at the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed a horse barn on the Cosgrove ranch early Monday night.

In addition to the team of four, three other chuckwagon race horses, owned by Lona Brees of Cochrane, also died in the fire.

Cut Production Farm Machinery 25 per cent of '40

OTTAWA, June 18, 1942 — Production of farm machinery in 1943 will be limited to 25 per cent of the 1940 output and imports will be similarly regulated, the agriculture department disclosed today.

The department said notice of the forthcoming restrictions had been given the agriculture supplies board by H. H. Bloom, administrator of farm and road machinery for the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. Mr. Bloom stressed importance of steel and iron to the war effort, was quoted as urging "utmost use" of every farm machine to maintain food production.

Urgent Need For Canadian Wool

It is imperative that Canada should produce more wool and every effort made to raise at least one million more sheep in the Dominion by 1943. Even in normal times, Canada produces only about one-quarter of the wool she requires. Under wartime conditions, with half a million fighting men to equip with uniforms, greatcoats, blankets and other woolen articles, at least 85 per cent of the wool needed has to be brought from overseas, largely from Australia and New Zealand.

With war developments now threatening the supply lines, Canada faces a serious situation—so serious as to call not only for compulsory reduction in the amount of wool allowed to be used for civilian purposes but also for greatly increased numbers of sheep on Canadian farms and ranges in order that Canada may attain a greater degree of self-sufficiency in wool.

How the minimum objective of a million, or more sheep may be attained in Canada in 1943 is explained in the special Wartime Production Series Pamphlet, No. 68, which has just been issued. The objective can be reached if every sheep owner will hold for breeding purposes all useful ewes and early ewe lambs of good quality that he can use in increasing his own flock, and, if after doing so, he has still good ewe lambs or useful aged ewes on hand, place them with someone else who could use them for foundation stock to increase his holdings, or to someone who is making a beginning with sheep. To make sure of disposing of these extra sheep to the best advantage, the owner should get in touch with the nearest district representative of the Provincial Department of Agriculture, or the livestock representative of the Dominion Department of Agriculture before deciding to send to market ewes that may be useful for breeding stock, if he cannot place them with other breeders. Special Pamphlet No. 68 may be obtained by writing to the Extension Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Bondholders And Government Meet

The long awaited conference between representatives of Alberta bondholders and members of the provincial government commenced this week, and extensive study was given to the problem in hand. A statement issued Tuesday said "various questions relating to the fiscal position and prospects of the province were discussed. The committee is engaged in investigating the possibilities of reaching a basis for refunding Alberta public debt."

Another important conference held during the week was that at which government and farmer representatives met to discuss proposals to be submitted to the Western Conference of government and farmer bodies from Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, for the purpose of easing the private debt situation in agriculture. Attending the Edmonton meeting were Robert Gardiner, President, U.F.A.; J.E. Brownlee, K.C., counsel for the U.G.O.; George Bennett, Manville, representing the Alberta Federation of Agriculture; William Havestak, K.C., of the Attorney General's Department. The conference was under the chairmanship of Hon. Lucien Maynard, K.C., minister of municipal affairs.

ARMY WEEK

training officers. There are two big officer training centres, one at Brockville, Ont., and one at Gordon Head in British Columbia, with a combined present capacity of 1,500 officers and planned for expansion to 2,000, and there are the junior war staff course, the senior officers' course and the Company Commanders course operating in Kingston.

18,000 Men Per Year
For the last few months Canada has been taking into training centres at least 15,000 men a month, which is at the rate of 180,000 a year. In May, Canada put into training centres, counting those enlisting and those called up, no less than 15,000 men.

Those men are taught more than the use of weapons. They are taught useful skills and trades and things of the mind and of the heart as well. Neatness, orderliness, pride in themselves, self-dependence, initiative, resourcefulness, the ability to make something else do if they can't get the exact thing they want.

They are taught leadership and above all they are taught responsibility to others and that each man is his brother's keeper.

They are men to be proud of, these men of the Canadian army, and it is fitting that all Canadians should honor them during Army Week.

News of the Week

FROM THE

Warline Prices and Trade Board

Coupon Application Card

MUST BE MAILED NOW

When citizens in rural districts receive applications for their sugar ration cards, they should promptly fill them in, printing their name in block letters and return them to the mail carrier or post office. If they are accustomed to receiving their mail from the post office, then the post office will see that the card goes to the proper office.

Warline Prices and Trade Board, after the applicant has printed his name and address in the right place. Now the women come on duty. Throughout Canada the task of recording sugar ration cards will be done in 100 centres, each centre under a supervisor representing the women's Advisory Committee of the Warline Prices and Trade Board. Four of these centres are in Alberta. Recording for the entire province will take place in Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat. This work will be done on June 28, 27, 29 and 30.

Mrs. Frank J. Conroy of Edmonton, as provincial regional chairman of the Women's Advisory Committee, is working with regional supervisors, Mrs. R.L. Nicholson of Calgary, Mrs. A.S. Funderburk of Lethbridge and Miss M. Fowler of Medicine Hat. Each supervisor convenes an effective working committee.

Enlarge the picture of the provincial set-up to take in all of Canada. You see 20,000 women at work to issue 12,000,000 sugar ration cards, providing the means of fair division of a scarce commodity. It is the biggest job yet asked of Canadian women. In their task, everyone is a volunteer, everyone a patriot.

VOUCHERS FOR PRESERVING

Rationing of sugar will stand at one-half pound per person per week and the housewife allowed no more than two weeks supply of sugar at any one time. For preserving the allowance is one-half pound per pound weight of fruit. These three-quarters pound per pound of fruit when jams and jellies are on the program. So when sugar is bought for canning or preserving the housewife will be enabled to sign a special voucher, in the presence of the retailer. These vouchers are necessary to enable the retailer to replenish his stock.

RENTAL RULING

Landlords are obliged to post the maximum rental in each section of the rental register according to the ruling of the Rental Administration of the Warline Prices and Trade Board. The ruling applies to every owner supplying lodging with, or with out, meal service, to three or more persons other than the members of his own family, and to any landlord renting accommodation for one week or less.

Alterations or improvements of his premises do not warrant any landlord increasing the rent, with-

"Keep Them Small But Keep Them Coming" Soldiers Urge

Men and women in the Canadian Services overseas, yecome their rations aren't adequate, but parcels from home not because they other mail, for their morale value.

"Keep them small but keep them coming" is the theme of many letters arriving from the United Kingdom.

What to send? Home-made sweets are fine, but you'll have to take necessary sugar from your ration. (Canadian troops overseas are allowed a sugar ration of 14 oz. a week). Hard cookies, short breads and cakes are desirable.

If you send home-made candy, pour it directly into a cardboard or tin container lined with waxed paper. Don't cut in pieces, it travels better whole.

Send notepaper, pencils, packs of cards, tooth paste, razor blades, cigarettes, tobacco, handkerchiefs, socks, chocolate bars, taffy, fudge, butter, toothbrush, lipsticks and chewing gum. The last two items make good chin flicks between packages as do handkerchief tissues.

Wrap foods carefully. In packing cookies, line the box with wax paper and put a tin cardboard between each layer. Place less perishable kinds at the bottom.

Use sturdy light-weight container and stout wrapping paper and wrap or tie all parcels securely. Remember the 11 pound maximum. A lot of goodness and variety can be packed into a six pound parcel.

REMARKABLE RECORD

Two thirds of the population of Britain between the ages of 14 and 45 are employed in the armed forces, civil defense or industry. That is a remarkable record, equalled, says Mr. Bevin, by no other country in history.

Outsuction under the Maximum Rental Regulations of the Warline Prices and Trade Board. Landlords and tenants are both liable to penalties for infractions. If a higher rent is charged, and paid, than that prevailing during the basic period, PROSECUTION.

Charged with raising a rental, and on second count of making a demand upon a tenant for rate or rent, Stanley H. McNeill, of Smith Falls, Ontario, was prosecuted under the Maximum Rental Regulations of the Warline Prices and Trade Board, and fined $20.00 with costs.

NO EGG SHORTAGE

Although some 45,000,000 dozen eggs will be exported to the United Kingdom this year, increased production makes the current supply for home use adequate. For summer menus eggs are light and nourishing and there's no end to the way in which they can be served, from boiled or baked, to the delectable fluffy omelette. They're not just jelly spread over the top of your omelette, then fold to serve, as is delicious as it is attractive.

IN MEMORIAM

MacLean: In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Douglas (Dode) Melvin MacLean, who passed to a higher life June 21, 1940 at the age of eighteen years. A light is gone from our household. A voice we loved is stilled. A place is vacant in our home. That never can be filled. He left behind him a freed from grief and tears. Far worthier things than tears. The love of friends without a single foe.

ARMY WEEK

JUNE 29th to JULY 5th

THE WEEK of June 29th to July 5th will be Army Week. Its object is to enable Canadians generally to become better acquainted with men in soldier khaki.

The nature of the war to date has focused the spotlight on the brilliant exploits of the R. C. A. F. and the Royal Canadian Navy. Apart from Hong Kong our troops overseas have not been dramatized by events. Their task, and the task of the hundreds of thousands of soldiers on our own soil, has been one of the hard yet—careless training, endless waiting.

But the war cannot be won without short-range fighting. When that happens, the young soldier to the front and tens of thousands of his mates will be in the thick of it. The final blow to Hitlerism will be delivered by the armies of the United Nations—by our Army.

You will be reading in the newspaper of the arrangements being made in your locality for honoring of the Army.

Take an active interest in what is going on attend the demonstrations.

More than that, DO SOMETHING PRACTICAL, SOMETHING PERSONAL.

Extend the hospitality of your home to men at near-by training centres. Make them feel that you appreciate what they are doing, and will be doing, for YOU.

Write to soldiers overseas, or in camp away from home. Write regularly. Were you ever around Army quarters when the mail is distributed? Did you ever watch the faces of those for whom there is no letter?

Send an occasional gift. It's the thought that counts is not the material value.

If you haven't a relative of your own in the Army be a pal to one who's relative. You never hear a soldier say, "Oh well, I haven't anybody to fight for." He's fighting for his country. You are a part of it. And you ought to have a share in the Army's welfare. Not only for a period of one week. For the duration. And a fier, too.
